Municipal Membership at the MFOA

Frequently Asked Questions

As at June 07, 2022

How does municipal membership work?

Municipalities pay an annual membership fee based on their population size.
Municipalities are entitled to a specified number of voting members based on their population size.
Municipalities can have an unlimited number of non-voting members.

How many voting members per municipality?

Population	Voting Members
< 5,000	2
5,000 to 24,999	3
25,000 to 49,999	4
50,000 to 74,999	5
75,000 to 199,999	7
200,000 to 499,999	10
500,000 to 749,999	14
> 750,000	18

What is a voting member?

A voting member is an employee of a member municipality entitled to vote in the annual election for the Board of Directors. Municipalities designate employees as voting members, not MFOA.

What is a non-voting member?

A non-voting member is an employee of a member municipality who is entitled to all membership privileges except for electing the Board of Directors and voting at the Annual Meeting. Membership privileges include access to the members' only portion of the website, including the Virtual Library, member pricing for events, and regular updates.

How do I find out if I am a voting member?

Two ways: consult the key contact in your municipality or by contacting Julie Turcsanyi at Julie@mfoa.on.ca.

Who is a Key Contact? What is their role?

The municipality's key contact is the individual responsible for providing membership changes to MFOA and the appropriate individual to receive the MFOA membership renewal invoice. May also be the Senior Financial Official.

Who is a Senior Financial Official? What is their role?

The municipality's Senior Financial Official is usually the individual responsible for identifying voting and non-voting members for the municipality. Most appropriate individual to address considerations for Municipal Membership with MFOA. May also be the Key Contact.
